THE CHILD-VIOLINIST.

He had played for his lordship's levee,
He had played for her ladyship's whale,
Till the poor little brain would swim.
And the face grew pale and eerie,
And the large eyes strange and bright,
And the voice low and faint,
He shall rest, for at least to night!

But, down, when the birds are waking,
As they watched in the silent room,
With the sound of a stricken cord breaking,
A sharp cry rent the air,
Twas a string of his violinist;
And they heard him at his bed;
"Kind God!"—Was the last that he said.

—Cornhill.

State Politics.DEMOCRATIC.

The dangerous illness of Mrs. W. O. Tugle, has prevented Mr. W. O. Tugle, elector for the fourth district, from canvassing the district.

M. Warner Spence, democratic nominee for the first Michigan division during the war, and in all the heavy battles. He says: "I shall do my best to serve the best interests of my county and state, and shall endeavor to pass any local law which my county desires. I expect to favor pure and honest legislation, and to give all public attention, to no down town all public attention, to no illegal Bullock roads, to lower our taxes, to restore confidence and growth will place the state upon a solid, enduring basis for the future.

There is no doubt in our mind but that Col. Dahney will carry Polk count by a wide majority. The people are standing by their statesmen, despite the efforts of disorganizers. —Cedartown Express.

After all, resolved into its last analysis, independent candidates in the large majority of cases, are nearly akin to republicanism that a microscope is needed to tell the difference, and then none can be detected. The aim of both is to defeat democracy.—Columbus Enquirer.

Turn out and vote next Wednesday for the regular nominees.

A gentleman who has the money wants to bet $500 that Dahney will beat Polk one thousand votes.—Rome Courier.

It is the duty of every democrat in the state to be at the polls on Wednesday next.

We hear that outside parties are claiming that Felton will carry Floyd county. These men know nothing about it; Felton will lose 500 votes in Floyd. There are not 200 democrats in the county, and the result will be radical. Maj. Hayes' constituents about 150 democrats, and these he will vote with his negroes, and the united vote will be Felton's strength in this county.—Rome Courier.

The following counties have nominated representatives: Taylor—Bennett Stewart, Whittlefield—Rev. W. C. Richardson.

The fact is, "independents" naturally flow into Radical channels.

Go out on Wednesday and vote for the nominees of the democratic party.

"Independents" reduced to the last analysis means disorganization, defeat and the success of radicalism.

Let every democrat be at the polls a next Wednesday and see if that is not an independent or radical escapes signal defeat.

RULEANIAN.

The co'rd people of Jasper county resolved to make no nomination for representative. An independent will suit them.
